

JUBILATE CHAMBER CHOIR is a mixed-voice choir that was formed in 1995 in Oxford, with the aim of performing a wide repertoire of choral music to a high standard. The choir has sung music from all periods, including Byrd, Vivaldi, Mozart, Britten, Bernstein, Pärt and Tavener – and has performed in all the major Oxford venues, including Keble College Chapel, The Church of St John the Evangelist, The University Church of St Mary the Virgin, Blackfriars Church, Merton College Chapel and Christ Church Cathedral.

JUBILATE CHAMBER CHOIR has also sung the Fauré Requiem in Westminster Abbey, and Evensong at Worcester Cathedral. JUBILATE is a Champion of the BBC Ten Pieces scheme, and has given concerts of ten choral pieces in Islip and Blackbird Leys, involving local primary school children.
